To Whom It May Concern

Reference: Mr John Politis

I have known Mr John Politis for more than 2 years in my capacity as Dean of the Faculty of Business and Law, Central Queensland University, Sydney International Campus. During this time, John demonstrated that he knows the fields of business and management very well. John gained the respect and admiration of his students and peers because of his knowledge, dedication and ability to teach various business and management subjects. Students' feed back (documented and also oral feed back) strongly support the view that Mr Politis is very well suited for a teaching career in business and in management.

John has the ability to communicate and integrate easily with other people at all levels. For example, he worked in teams to develop courses and to set out strategic directions for the Faculty of Business and Law. The strength of his concern for the welfare of students and other people less fortunate than himself is commendable.

He has the necessary talent, personality and academic leadership with a conscientious style of management. In the Faculty of Business and Law he is very active in organizing students' work placement in industry and in carrying out fieldwork. Mr Politis has a disciplined approach to work, an ability to coordinate, cooperate and demonstrate creativity in a manner that gets assigned tasks completed efficiently and effectively. John has the academic and technical breadth and depth expected of a good Lecturer.

My general opinion is that Mr Politis is one of our best academics in the Faculty of Business and Law. In my view, Mr Politis will add value and advance the course of his employment. I believe it would be a great win for a College to secure Mr Politis' services. Please do not hesitate to contact me for any further information.

Sincerely yours,

Professor Teresa Buczkowska
